A complete guide to the right tools and solutions for your industry.

Cannabis Care Product Guide

CCP Direct has evolved over the last 100 years into North America's largest converter of nonwoven wiping products. With our expanded portfolio, we can now offer product categories, including safety, facility supplies, chemicals, apparel and janitorial supplies. We deliver the expertise, flexibility, and essential products that cannabis growers, processors, and dispensaries count on every day.

CCP Direct understands the importance of indoor growing. We know that growing inside helps conserve resources and provides the opportunity for year-round farming. Each year, indoor and greenhouse farming proves to be increasingly commercially viable and significantly more sustainable.

The cannabis industry is one of the fastest growing in indoor agriculture. The US cannabis industry is currently worth $61 billion. The industry is projected to be worth $100 billion in the US by 2030. In 2020, nationwide sales increased 67%.

CCP Direct is knowledgeable on the essential products needed to maintain your grow house. No matter what you grow or where you operate, our local Area Managers and dedicated support services team will help you find the best solutions. We are committed to providing your operation with the products and support to keep it moving forward.

We know you're committed to quality.
We provide the tools to help you succeed.
